

HOW TO TEACH LIKE A MASTER ORATOR

by Ben Muhlestein

Prepared for the 2010 LDSEHE Education Conference in Buena Vista, Virginia

Part One: Unlocking the Power of Communication Within Your Youth

A. Why Knowing Your True Inner Self Ennobles Confidence.

President Spencer W. Kimball said,
“Jesus knew who he was and why he was here on this planet. That meant he could lead from strength rather than from uncertainty or weakness.”

B. The Questions that

Unlock the True Inner Self:

1. If I had the ability to change lives then what would I do?
2. What was I born to become?
3. What am I most passionate about doing for others?
4. What attributes do I possess that enable me to influence others?
5. What attributes would I like to possess that would empower me to become of better influence to others?
6. What contribution was I destined to give my fellowmen?

Part Two: How to Teach Like the Great Masters: “Accessing the Grand Master Key”

A. The Lord’s Pattern of Teaching

On the Road to Emmaus: Luke 24: 13-32:

- He asks them life changing questions with follow-up questions
- Then Cleopas answers the questions from the heart
- The Lord teaches and testifies scriptures about Himself
- He served them bread
- The Disciples reflected on feeling the Spirit
- It caused them to go and share (act)

B. The Grand Master Key

JAMES 1: 5

Part Three: How to Tap Into the Foundational Source of Teaching. The True Source of Teaching.

A. Teaching with God’s Power

- Alma 17: 2-3
- Alma 31: 5
- 3rd Nephi 7: 18
- Matthew 7: 28-29

B. Nations were transformed by the words of God. The same can happen in our day.

- Alma Chapter 13
- Moses Chapters 6-7
- 2nd Nephi Chapter 14
